specifically, the drug at issue is Actimmune and the conduct at issue took place when the Defendant was employed by InterMune, Inc.

The Court has previously issued a protective order relating to discovery containing either certain individually identifiable health information (defined as health information that is connected to a patient's name, address, Social Security number of other identifying number, including HIC number) on 23, 2008 or confidential business, financial, proprietary, or other confidential information of third parties, including InterMune, Inc., submitted to the United States Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") related to drug applications and other filings and communications.

At this time, the parties request that the protective order be expanded to include confidential business, financial, proprietary, or other confidential information of third parties, including InterMune, Inc., regardless of whether it was submitted to FDA.

To expedite the production of discovery material and to adequately protect the information provided health information and information provided to the FDA, the parties agree and stipulate that materials containing financial, proprietary, or other confidential information of a third party, InterMune, Inc. or any material containing certain individually identifiable health information will be handled in accordance with the conditions set forth below. In order to protect the confidentiality of this information, and with the stipulation of the parties, the government asks the Court to enter the following protective order:

- 1. The parties agree that to designate "confidential" material covered by this agreement, the United States shall so designate, on the material itself, on a diskette cover, or in an accompanying cover letter, by using the following designation: "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE AGREEMENT."
- 2. Counsel shall narrowly tailor the documents, materials, or papers that come within this order.
- 3. The failure to designate any materials as provided in this paragraph shall not constitute a waiver of any assertion that the materials are covered by this Protective Agreement
  - 4. The defendant, including defendant's counsel and their personnel, agree to use these materials only for the purposes of this criminal action, and agree not to disclose these materials to non-parties except as needed for the defense of this criminal action, and only if the nonparty signs this letter, or another copy of this letter, which will be subsequently provided to counsel for the United States. If defense counsel wishes to utilize the services of any non-party, including but not limited to an investigator, expert or other individual to review the protected materials in connection with the preparation of a defense, prior to receiving access to the materials such individual must sign a copy of the "Acknowledgment of Protective Order and Proper Handling of Materials Subject Thereto" attached to a copy of this Order acknowledging that:

- a) he/she has reviewed the Order;
- b) he/she understand its contents;
- c) he/she agrees that he/she will only access the protected materials for the purposes of preparing the defense case;
- d) he/she will not make any copies of any of the protected materials without further order of the Court; and
- e) he/she understands that failure to abide by this Order may result in sanctions by this Court.

Defense counsel shall promptly file signed copies of the Order along with the signed Acknowledgment of Protective Order and Proper Handling of Materials Subject Thereto Order, ex parte and under seal. The government shall have no access to these signed copies without further order of the Court.

- 5. As applied to documents, materials, or papers filed with the court, this order shall be used sparingly to cover only those items that are clearly trade secret, come within clearly defined areas of privileges or confidentiality accepted in the federal courts, or have a compelling need for confidentiality.
- 6. Documents, material or papers submitted as exhibits to or in support of motions or for pretrial, trial or other court proceedings shall not be filed under seal except by order of the court. Documents, materials or other papers submitted as exhibits will remain as part of the court record and may not be withdrawn without order of the court.

7. The parties agree that the procedures for use of designated confidential documents during any hearing or the trial of this matter shall be determined by the parties and the Court in advance of the hearing or trial. The parties agree to consider redacting confidential documents, request the Court to submit such documents under seal, code the documents to protect confidential information, request that any exhibit be placed under seal, or assure that all confidential information has been removed.

No party shall disclose designated confidential documents in open Court without prior consideration by the Court.

5. Within 30 days of any judgment and sentencing, defendant shall return these confidential documents and all copies, as well as notes, memoranda, summaries, or other documents containing information from the designated confidential documents, to counsel for the United States, or shall destroy these documents and certify in writing to counsel for the United States that the documents have been destroyed. If defendant believes that he must maintain the
